

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear violation of federal law.

This show is being billed as news and not subject to the same requirements of entertainment shows. It is not entertainment; it is propaganda.

And it is propaganda being broadcast with deliberate malice aforethought.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest -- our interest -- my interest. This not in the interest of anyone except the big money, Republicans who wants Bush re-elected at any cost so they can gain total control of the government.

As the body charged with oversight, you, the FCC MUST take action now, before the show airs. I doubt you will. Courage is in short supply in Washington D.C. these days but I urge you to do so.
